A Caribbean Cruise/Golf Conference

featuring

"Bill Hobson"

Host of Michigan Golf Live Radio/TV.

December 4 - 11, 2010

~ Princess Cruises - Crown Princess ~

Hello friends! As Host of Michigan Golf Live Radio & TV for the past decade, I've been privileged to visit some of the world's top golf destinations. But NOTHING we've ever done compares to the incredible golf cruise package being offered to each of you. For the first time ever, Michigan Golf Live is ready to go on "cruise control" and spend time with you both on the water and the fairways.

This amazing package combines the fun of cruising with the beauty of golf. We'll turn you loose to enjoy the ship, gather on board for golf clinics and contests, head to shore to play golf in paradise, then do it all over again the next day!

I hope you'll accept my personal invitation to the MGL Golf Cruise this December. It will be a time you'll never forget. To make it even more special, if you are one of the first 10 golfers to register for the cruise, you'll receive a dozen MGL-logo golf balls to bring along on the trip.

See you in December!

FT. LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

Seven miles of perfect beaches welcome the seagoing traveler to Ft. Lauderdale. Renowned for sun and water sports, the city also offers fine shopping along the Riverwalk and a perfect jumping-off point for a tour of the Everglades. Take a stroll on Downtown Ft. Lauderdale's Riverwalk. It's the center for shopping, dining, arts festivals of all kinds, and a lively nightlife. Just about any water sport imaginable is available along Ft. Lauderdale's seven miles of white sandy beaches. From waterskiing and boating to fishing and diving, it's a true water sports paradise. A Fort Lauderdale historic residence, the Bonnet House is an impressive estate filled with native southern Floridian plants and imported tropical varieties, including an extensive orchid collection.

GRAND CAYMAN, CAYMAN ISLANDS

365 days of crystal-clear warm water and almost no current give Grand Cayman the ideal conditions for diving and snorkeling. You'll be amazed at the breathtaking marine life and seascapes that provide underwater photographers with subject matter beyond compare. Even those who don't want to get wet can experience awesome sea viewing from the comfort of a submarine. For a real thrill, try snorkeling with the world-famous stingrays at Stingray Sandbar. It's a must-do experience! Visit the world's only green sea turtle hatchery. Here you'll see turtles in all stages of development, from tiny hatchlings that you can hold in your hands, to adults weighing over 600 pounds. For the truly brave, wander down the road to the quirky town of Hell, where you'll see the unusual jagged rock formations that inspired the town's name. A postcard sent from here will have a truly unforgettable postmark.

ROATAN, HONDURAS

As you sail into Roatan's sparkling new Mahogany Cruise Center, you'll know you are in for a unique and distinctly Caribbean experience. This island paradise is surrounded by over 60 miles of protected, living reef that provides shelter to thousands of species of fish and marine life. The interior offers ancient Copan ruins, tropical jungles and curious upright moving "Jesus" lizards, as well as brilliantly colored macaws and parrots. The moment you step ashore in the new cruise port of Mahogany Bay, you'll find shops, restaurants and bars. There's also a ski-style chair-lift that will transport you over tree tops to pristine Mahogany Beach, where you'll find a resort setting with a children's play area, beach cabanas and crystal clear waters. At Gumbalimba Preservation Park, delight in watching the free-flying scarlet macaws, hold a juvenile monkey, explore a re-creation of a pirate cave, and roam through the Botanical Garden and learn about many of the indigenous plants of this region. These superb ruins with intricate carvings predate most European civilizations. Unique among Mayan cities, the huge complex consists of several plazas, an Acropolis with many temples built on various levels as well as tunnels. The many different areas of Copan offer visitors a feast of Mayan artifacts to discover. Sandy Bay is the cultural center of Roatan. Among the places to visit are the Roatan Museum, Institute of Marine Sciences, the Carambola Gardens and Marine Reserve.

COZUMEL, MEXICO

Located 12 miles off the southern coast of the Yucatan Peninsula, Cozumel is known as the gem of the Mexican Caribbean. Perhaps its name reflects the fact that its temperate, crystal clear waters range in jewel tones from stunning turquoise to deep indigo. Just off the mainland, the famous caverns, or cenotes, of the spectacular Dos Ojos Cave System provide an unforgettable glimpse of ocean architecture. Tulum is the only Mayan city built overlooking the sea. From its sacred alters to its city's infrastructure, it's clear that this ancient civilization was truly advanced.

PRINCESS CAYS, BAHAMAS

The tiny island of Eleuthera in the Bahamas is home to the private beach party hosted exclusively for Princess guests. A full day of fun in the sun offers something for every member of the family from snorkeling, kayaking, sailing and floating to lingering over drinks and a delicious barbecue. Enjoy a private beach serves up a good time, including a coral reef with schools of tropical fish, a special area dedicated to children's activities, water sports equipment, relaxing music, bar facilities, and lunch! Hit the beach and clear waters with snorkeling gear or a floating mattress. Join a basketball game or the action around the volleyball court. Check out the seaboards, aqua bikes, Hobie Cat sailboats, Sunfish sailboats, paddle wheelers, Banana Boats or transparent hull kayaks at the water sports pier. Climb the Crow's Nest Tower for panoramic views, or shop for local handicrafts. Three bars and live music compliment lunch and the authentic Bahamian barbecue on the beach. Feast on hamburgers, chicken, bratwurst, salads, and fresh fruit. Water, tea and lemonade are available at the picnic area for no additional cost, and a full staff of drink servers is on hand to serve cocktails and soda.
