"Calling all Teachers and Crafters"

Classroom Arts and Crafts Cruise 2012

July 6 - 13, 2012

- Royal Caribbean International - Radiance of the Seas - Alaskan Cruise

Hey all you Teachers, Crafters, and Avid Scrapbookers are you needing some time away? Are you ready to relax, make crafts, and do scrapbooking, while cruising the beautiful Alaskan waters? How does 7 days of Crafting, including Scrapbooking sound to you?

Here's your opportunity to relax and join other fellow teachers/crafters from the US and Canada that have the same passion for teaching and crafting that you do, and of course, to learn some new ideas to take back to your classrooms with you.

You can participate in all of the ships activities on land and at sea or spend 7 days Crafting/Scrapbooking, the choice is yours. Special demonstrations and classes will be held while we are sailing and when we get to the ports you are off to explore paradise, go on an adventure of a lifetime, or continue Crafting/Scrapbooking. We meet at dinner to share where we explored or what adventure we experienced for the day.

As the newly appointed Full Time Arts and Crafts Coordinator for All Star Cruises and Travel, Inc., I am so excited to bring this fun filled event to Teachers/Scrapppers all over. We are happy to announce several travel events that are being specifically planned around Arts and Crafts. This is just the beginning of our Arts and Crafts Cruises. There are more Arts and Crafts Cruises currently being planned.

Please consider joining us for this breath taking and fun filled event. It will be an adventure of your lifetime. Please feel free to call Dan the Travel Man at 800-818-3739 about any travel questions

Arts & Crafts Coordinator

Vancouver, British Columbia

Most recently ranked by The Economist as the number one most livable city in the world, Vancouver is a picturesque city surrounded by the waters of the Pacific Ocean and the snow capped peaks of the Coast Mountain range.

Vancouver is Canada's third largest city with many unique neighborhoods to explore including Gastown, Yaletown, Chinatown and the West End. Visitors can enjoy world class shopping, gourmet meals, outstanding live entertainment, sporting events, theatre, outdoor adventure and world-class attractions.

Inside Passage (Cruising)

Cruising through the Inside Passage is really what has made Alaska cruising so popular. This trip captures so much of what people love about Alaska. There are glaciers the size of Rhode Island, misty rain forests, ghostly blue fjords and spirited communities that celebrate their varied heritage. Be sure to take in every view as you sail through one of the most beautiful parts of Alaska.

Ketchikan, Alaska

Ketchikan originated as an Indian fish saltery, but the town's major growth began when it became a supply base and entry port for miners during the 1898 Gold Rush to the Klondike. Much of the town's colorful past is still in evidence, especially in the nearby Indian villages, where you'll see colorfully carved totem poles and hear the fascinating legends that surround them.

Icy Strait Point, Alaska

Icy Strait Point is located near the city of Hoonah, the largest native Tlingit Indian settlement in Alaska, and very near Glacier Bay National Park. Home to a historic cannery, the port's connection to the sea is strong. Locals share the sea with humpback whales, orcas, Dall porpoises, seals, sea otters, halibut and all five species of Pacific salmon. It is not uncommon to spot a humpback or an orca while walking along the shore.

Juneau, Alaska

Juneau, the capital of Alaska, was founded during a gold rush in 1880. Today, the former gold-mining town counts among its riches some of Alaska's most spectacular scenery. Nestled at the foot of Mt. Juneau in the Alaska Panhandle, it faces the water from the mainland side of Gastineau Channel. Several magnificent fjords are located along the channel coast, and the majestic Mendenhall Glacier, a favorite of visitors, is nearby.

Skagway, Alaska

When gold was discovered in the Klondike region of the Yukon Territory (just across the border from Alaska), it resulted in the historic Gold Rush of 1898. As thousands of gold-crazed adventurers sought the best starting point for their arduous trek, they found the deepest penetration possible by boat was at the northern tip of the Lynn Canal. This is how Skagway was born.

Hubbard Glacier (Cruising)

The longest river of ice in North America, the Hubbard Glacier is also one of the most active glaciers of its kind in Alaska. And since our ships are designed to provide our guests with the best viewing possible, you'll be able to see this massive natural wonder, with its 1,350 square miles of blue ice, from just about anywhere on the ship.

Seward, Alaska

Seward is not only one of Alaska's oldest communities, it's also one of its most scenic. Visit and discover this picturesque town known as the gateway to Kenai Fjords National Park. You'll find a historic downtown district filled with quaint shops and art galleries, and some of the most exciting outdoor adventures imaginable.

Cruise Only Passengers will end there cruise vacation here.

Cruise/Tour Passengers will continue with this land tour.

Day 8 - Seward/Anchorage/Fairbanks

Once in Seward, you'll board a deluxe motor coach for a scenic drive to Anchorage airport. Here you'll meet your Adventure Specialist for a flight to Fairbanks. Depending on your flight schedule, you'll be able to visit an Alaskan museum in Anchorage or Fairbanks. You'll spend the night in Fairbanks.

Day 9 - Fairbanks/Denali

You'll cruise on the riverboat Discovery Sternwheeler in the morning, which includes a stop at an Athabascan Indian Village. Then travel by deluxe motor coach to Denali in the afternoon. You'll have the rest of the day for optional activities such as river-rafting or flight seeing, or you can just marvel at the natural beauty of the area before you settle in for the night at your Denali hotel.

Day 10 - Denali/Talkeetna

Start the day with the Denali Natural History Tour in Denali National Park. Then sit back and relax as you take in the wonders of Alaska aboard the Wilderness Express, our glass-domed train cars, on your way to Talkeetna. When the day ends you'll have time for independent activities, including glacier flight seeing or river-rafting. At night, you can relax at the Talkeetna Alaskan Lodge.

Day 11 - Talkeetna/Anchorage

Spend the first part of your day exploring the area or participating in an optional activity such as a float trip on the Talkeetna River. Late in the afternoon, board the Wilderness Express for a journey through the scenic wilderness. The trip ends in Anchorage, Alaska's largest city, where you'll spend the night.

Day 12 - Anchorage

Your Adventure Specialist will see that you are transferred to the Anchorage airport for your flight home.
